APA Referencing Style Guide . This page provides APA information and examples for students and staff of the University of Waikato. It is designed to accompany (not replace) the 6th edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (2010), which is available in the Library. There are two components to referencing: citing within the text of your paper, and the reference list at the end. All sources of information and data, whether quoted directly or paraphrased, are cited with parenthetical references in the text of your paper. Other APA Tools (tips checklist, how-to videos, in-text citations, APA format in presentations, review checklist) -It is essential to acknowledge the ownership of resources used in your academic writing. At AUT we use the APA reference style (6th edition) to format references.
