

Download Equine Artificial Insemination

NEH is the largest equine hospital in Europe. The hospital is a purpose built state-of-the-art facility, with RCVS accreditation as a tier three specialist equine hospital. Willamette Valley Equine was established to provide superior health care for horses and exceptional, affordable, personalized service for clients. We offer full service ambulatory care for area horse owners, breeding farms, and training facilities and our dedicated veterinarians and staff will ensure you and your horse receive the special ...