Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Pub. 969, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to IRS.gov/Pub969. Employers must give employees at least a 30 day notice prior to recession of a health plan and a 60 day notice for material benefit changes. In other words if a plan is cancelled for any reason it's 30 days, if the plan is going to change benefit-wise it's 60 days. If an employee works at least an average of 30 hours a week, or 130 hours a month, they are considered full-time and large employers must offer health insurance to them under the law. In April, The Bakersfield Californian reported that the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) signed a contract with private prison company GEO Group to re-open and operate a women's facility in McFarland, California.
