Our world is changing, and in order to prepare our children for this new world we need to change the way we educate them. In the 21st century educators must create a curriculum that will help students connect with the world and understand the issues that our world faces. PREPARING FOR THE 21st CENTURY. THE EDUCATION IMPERATIVE. To be prepared for today's workforce, informed about important issues, and able to understand the complex world in which we live, all Americans must have a solid education in science, mathematics, and technology. Eminent educational philosopher Nel Noddings draws on John Dewey's foundational work to reimagine education's aims and curriculum for the 21st century. Problems of Education in the 21st Century is an international, periodical scientific journal publishing original research across the whole of education.
