Death Penalty This paper is to look at the death penalty, in this authors opinion it is a good tool that is not being used to its potential. Serial killers and child murderers should be at the top of the list to be put to death they should get one appeal and this should be done in a speedy fashion. Waiting one year for new evidence is long enough in Texas there are 337 waiting on death row ...Death in itself is powerful enough to send shivers down the spine of every human being. Discussing it in a legalized and state-imposed manner makes it as controversial as it is dreadful. Any thesis statement should be determined by what the author really believes. This question about the death penalty is one that really tries to force the author to take a position for or against. The death penalty, or capital punishment, refers to punishment by death imparted to a person by a state or a legal framework. Because of the nature of the punishment, the death penalty raises a plethora of human-rights issues, which, consequently, has led to its abolishment in a majority of countries across the globe. However, despite the controversies surrounding it, it is still practiced in one form or another in about 58 countries.
